

A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING PARTICIPATION WITHIN THE TARRANT COUNTY 9-1-1 EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE DISTRICT

WHEREAS, The city of Pelican Bay is a city that lies wholly or partly within Tarrant County; and

WHEREAS, A majority of the votes cast by the voters of Pelican Bay, in the April 6, 1985 election, as found in the Final Official Canvass of the Election Records of Tarrant County, Texas, County Clerk's Office were in favor of confirming the creation of the Tarrant County 9-1-1 Emergency Assistance District and authorizing a 9-1-1 emergency service fee to be charged;

BE IT RESOLVED,

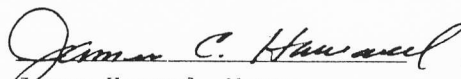

By the City Council of Pelican Bay, State of Texas:

That the matterd and facts recited in the preamble of this Resolution are found and determined to be true and correct; and

That the City of Pelican Bay become a participating jurisdiction of the Tarrant County 9-1-1 Emergency Assistance District pursuant to the provisions of the Emergency Communication District Act (Article 1432d, Vernon's Texas Civil Statues) with all the rights, priviledges and duties as stated in said Act, particularly the charging and collecting of the 9-1-1 emergency service fee according to the terms of said Act.

It is understood that once confirmed, the Tarrant County 9-1-1 Emergency Assistance District will be subject to public review every three (3) years, pursuant to Section 16 of the Emergency Communidation District Act and that the continued existance or dissolution of the Tarrant County 9-1-1 Emergency Assistance District will be effected only by the terms of said Act.

PASSED AND ADOPTED THIS THE 6 DAY OF November, 1986

James Howard, Mayor
City of Pelican Bay

ATTEST:

Diana Simpson
City Secretary